Beef Exports.

The exports of fresh beef to Great Britain from New York and Philadelphia in March amounts to 6,707,855 pounds valued at $500,600. Total in nine months, 21,908,810 pounds, valued at $2,677,383.

Just in Time.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 10.—A writ or error from the Supreme Court reached here today and stopped the execution of Thomas Campbell.

Double Murder and Suicide.

EAST MONTPELIER, Vt., April 10.—Hiram Arbuckle this afternoon shot George Short, and, leaving him for dead, then shot his brother-in-law, George Bancroft, dead, and then, going home, put a bullet through his own heart. Insanity was the cause.

Bogus Railroad Tickets.

OMAHA, April 10.—John W. Frye was arrested and jailed to-day for having in his possession bogus railroad tickets, which he has been trying to sell here. He had forty tickets to San Francisco, representing $4,000.

Mechanics Discharged.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., April 10.—About 400 or 500 men employed as rollers and heaters in the Springfield iron rail company's mills have been thrown out of employment by a disagreement with the company concerning wages. The company will fill their places with non-union men.

The Ohio Legislature.

COLUMBUS, April 10.—The General Assembly will probably adjourn April 20th.

Religionists in Convention.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The National Reform convention held its first annual meeting here to-day. During the afternoon David McAllister of Philadelphia stated the objects of the association which are to maintain the Bible in public schools, Sabbath laws, the oath and other christian features of our government, and to provide for them an undeniable legal basis by a religious amendment to the federal constitution. Dr. Edwards, of Peoria, was chosen president. He made a long speech and stated the objects of the association, which he said was not formed to make a new party, but to lay the foundations of what should be in this nation a holy book, a holy name and a holy day. He argued that the constitution did not now embrace the thoughts which it did when first promulgated by our forefathers, who did not anticipate the changes in the religious sentiment of our people, which has been superinduced largely by foreign immigration.

Prayer vs. Grasshoppers.

ST. PAUL, April 10.—Governor Pillsbury issued a proclamation to-day setting apart Thursday, April the 27th as a special day of prayer throughout the State, for the annihilation of the grasshoppers.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Major Reno's Sentence.

CHICAGO, April 9.—The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says the verdict of the military tribunal in the Reno case has been received at the department of justice, but cannot yet be given. Reno's friends are trying to break down the verdict on the ground that he was not allowed to produce evidence concerning Bell's character which he claims is very bad. The sentence is believed to be severe.

Treasury Regulations.

Assistant Secretary McCormick is very busy looking over the points of Secretary Sherman's late instructions, and preparing suggestions.

Chandler Goes Home.

Ex-Secretary Chandler leaves for Detroit to-morrow. He will reside there.

The Speakership.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The Herald's Washington special foreshadows that the contest for the Speakership lies between Morrison and Randall on the Democratic side, and Garfield and Foster on the Republican side.

Decision Relating to Coal Lands.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Commissioner Williamson, of the general land office, to-day rendered an interesting decision in the case of Buel and Bateman, applicants for patents for certain coal lands, in contact with an application of the town of Coalville, Utah, for a patent for its town site. The commissioner directs that patents shall be issued to the town site, reserving the coal, and to the coal lands to the claimants, reserving the rights of town site claimants. The effect will therefore be a patent as town site, and the underlying deposits will be patented to other parties.

Treasury Appointees.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The following is the law relative to the appointments in the treasury department: "That on and after January 1, 1876, the appointments of this department shall be so arranged as to be equally distributed between the several States of the United States and Territories and District of Columbia, according to population." Secretary Sherman will rigidly enforce the above law. At present there can be no appointment from New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia, Arizona or the District of Columbia. The Secretary will also insist that only one member of a family shall be employed in the treasury department.

A Contested Seat.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Patterson, of Colorado, in a brief to Clerk Adams, denies the right of Belford to a seat in the next Congress on the ground that he could not be elected at the same election to fill the fragment of a term in the 44th and a full term in the 45th Congress, the Convention providing that one Representative from the State at large should be elected at the first election under the Constitution and thereafter at such times and place as may be prescribed by law. Patterson contends that as such provision has not been made by the State, his own election is valid under a general law of Congress which establishes the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November as the day for the election of Representatives and Delegates. The clerk is now carefully considering the law and facts.

"Crooked" Tobacco.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Extensive revenue frauds, in the manufacture of tobacco in North Carolina, have recently been discovered. Some 30 manufacturers in the county of Surrey, charged with participation, have been indicted. The frauds are estimated to exceed a third of the total amount of internal revenue taxes collected in that State.

General of the Army.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Gen. Sherman and family leave on Thursday for St. Louis to reside for the summer. He will be absent about a week. His preparation for this trip gave rise to the unfounded report that the headquarters of the army were to be moved to St. Louis.

Cushing Returns from Spain.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says: Caleb Cushing has started from Spain for America. His return is not probable. Foster of Indiana, Mexican minister, is an applicant for the place.

Spotted Tail to be Recognized.

The President will recognize the services of Spotted Tail in bringing in the hostiles so as to make an example to the Indians of the treatment of those who promote peace.

Troops Ordered from Alaska.

Secretary McCrary to-day ordered the removal of the troops from Alaska, and Secretary Sherman has ordered a revenue cutter to Alaska to supply their place.

Counterfeiters Arrested.

The Tribune's Washington special says Officer Bauer, of the secret service, reports that he arrested six prisoners in Knoxville, Tennessee, jail, who engaged in the manufacture of 50 and 25-cent counterfeit silver coins. He captured the coins and implements.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Speculation as to Chamberlain's Course.

Withdrawal of Troops from the State House.

An Indignant Farewell from Chamberlain.

Chamberlain and Packard Strengthening Themselves.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Chamberlain and Packard, especially the latter, are receiving much encouragement from the North to hold out. Packard shows much strength, and the Commission's task is getting more and more difficult. It is said Chamberlain will fill the State house with militia when the troops are withdrawn to-morrow. Elliott, lately chairman of the Republican committee of South Carolina will issue an address to the people of the North, soliciting their aid to enable the Republicans of the State to resist the tax payers' rebellion. It will suggest that Chamberlain's warrants be hypothecated into available funds, the amounts advanced being returned with interest when Chamberlain succeeds in collecting sufficient taxes to redeem them; and declare that the public will not succumb without an effort. The accession of the Democracy means political disfranchisement of the blacks and ostracism of white Republicans. Chamberlain's object is said to be either to force the President to directly recognize Hampton or to have the question referred to the special session of Congress. He seems to be of the opinion that a political debate in Congress will cause a reaction in sentiment favorable to Chamberlain, and perhaps incite Hampton to violate his pledges and use force.

The Tribune on Southern Affairs.

The Tribune's editorial says: The better class of Republican politicians at the South would know much better how to manage their affairs if they could only see themselves as others see them. The long course of federal coddling convinced them of the prime necessity, for party reasons, that the Southern States should be prevented at any cost from falling into Democratic hands. Here is Chamberlain, for instance, resolving, after consultation with a certain faction in Washington, to hold on like grim death to the very last. The Republican party at the North prefers not to be identified with his fortunes, and though it respects his abilities and recognizes the excellence of his recent administration, it wishes to let him gently drop.

The Troops March out of the State House.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 10.—The U. S. troops were formed in line and moved out of the State House at noon to-day.

Chamberlain Indignant—He Issues a Stirring Proclamation.

Chamberlain has just issued the following address retiring from the contest for the Governorship:

To the Republicans of South Carolina: By your choice I was made governor of this State in 1874. In the election last November I was again, by your votes, elected to the same office. My title to the office, upon every legal and moral ground, is to-day clear and perfect. By the recent decision and action of the President of the United States, I find myself unable longer to maintain my official rights with a prospect of final success, and I hereby announce to you that I am unwilling to prolong a struggle which can only bring further suffering upon those who engage in it. Announcing this conclusion to you it is my duty to say for you that the Republicans of South Carolina entered upon their political struggle for the maintenance of their political and civil rights, constituting beyond question a large majority of the lawful votes of the State. You allied yourselves with that political party whose control and inspiring principle has hitherto been civil and political freedom of all men under the constitution and laws of our country. By such efforts and sacrifices which the just verdict of history will rescue from the cowardly scorn now cast upon them by political placemen and traders, you secured the electoral vote of South Carolina for Hayes and Wheeler. In accomplishing this result you became the victims of every form of persecution and injury. From authentic evidence it is shown that no less than 800 of your number were murdered because they were faithful to their principles, and exercised the rights solemnly guaranteed to them by the nation. You were denied employment, driven from your homes, robbed of the earnings of years of honest industry; hunted for your lives like wild beasts; your families outraged and scattered for no offense except your peaceful and firm determination to exercise your political rights. You trusted, as you had a right to trust, that if by these efforts you established the lawful supremacy of your political party in the nation, the Government of the United States in the discharge of a constitutional duty would protect the lawful government of your State from overthrow at the hands of your political enemies. From causes patent to all men and questioned by none who regard truth, you have been unable to overcome the unlawful combinations and obstacles which have opposed the practical supremacy of the government which your votes have established. For many weary months you have waited for your deliverance, while the long struggle for the presidency was in progress. You were exhorted by every representative and organ of the National Republican party to keep your allegiance true to that party in order that your deliverance from the hands of your oppressors might be certain and complete. Not the faintest whisper of the possibility of disappointment in these hopes and promises ever reached you while the struggle was pending. To-day, April 10th, by order of the President whom your votes alone rescued from overwhelming defeat, the Government of the United States abandons you; deliberately withdraws from you its support, with the full knowledge that the lawful government of the State will speedily be overthrown. By a new interpretation of the Constitution of the United States at variance alike with the previous practices of the government and with the decision of the Supreme Court, the Executive of the United States evades the duty of ascertaining which of the two rival State governments is the lawful one, and by the withdrawal of the troops now protecting the State from domestic violence, abandons the lawful State government to a struggle with the insurrectionary force too powerful to be resisted. The grounds of the policy upon which such action is depended are startling. It is said the North is weary of the long southern troubles. It was weary, too, of the long troubles which sprang from the stupendous slavery question and longed for repose. It sought to cover them from sight by wicked compromises with wrong, which disturbed its peace, but God held it to its duty until through a conflict that racked and agonized the nation, the great crime was put away and freedom was ordained for all. It is said that if a majority of the people of a State are unable by physical force to maintain their rights they must be left to political servitude. Is this a doctrine ever before heard of in our history? If it shall prevail, its consequences will not long be confined to South Carolina or Louisiana. By the action of the President no court of the State has jurisdiction to pass upon the title to my office. No lawful legislature can be convened except upon my call. If the use of these powers promised ultimate success to our cause, I should not shrink from any sacrifice which might confront me. It is a cause in which by the light of reason and conscience, a man might well lay down his life, but to my mind my present responsibility involves the consideration of the effect of my action upon those whose representative I am. I have hitherto been willing to ask you Republicans of South Carolina to risk all dangers and endure all hardships until relief should come from the government of the United States. That relief will never come. It is said a Democratic House of Representatives will refuse an appropriation for the army of the United States if the lawful government of South Carolina is maintained by the military forces. The submission to such coercion marks the democracy of the political party or people which endures it as a government unworthy the name. A political party, fit to wield power, never before blanched at such a threat. But the edict has gone forth. No arguments or consideration which your friends could present have sufficed to avert disaster; no effective means of resistance to the consummation of wrong are left. The struggle cannot be prolonged. My strictly legal rights are, of course, wholly unaffected. I cannot ask you to follow me further. In my judgment I can no longer serve you by further resistance to the impending calamity. With gratitude to God for the measure of endurance with which he has hitherto inspired me, with gratitude to you for your boundless confidence, with profound admiration for your matchless fidelity to the cause in which we have struggled, I now announce to you and to the people of the State that I shall no longer actively assert my right to the office of Governor of South Carolina. The motives and purposes of the President of the United States in the policy which compels me to pursue my present course are unquestionably honorable and patriotic. I devoutly pray that events may vindicate the wisdom of his action, and that peace, justice, freedom and prosperity may hereafter be the portion of every citizen of South Carolina.

D. H. CHAMBERLAIN,
Governor of South Carolina.

Chamberlain's Conduct.

Chamberlain's sudden weakening caused much surprise here because his recent letters have indicated a different course. He could have prolonged the dispute indefinitely owing to the peculiar condition of the courts, and he has received much encouragement from Republicans both North and South. He is wise, brave and generous, and doubtless saw clearly that it would all avail nothing, and in the end would ruin him personally and do damage to the State and people and the President. He saw that while the great mass of Republicans oppose this new Southern policy that they are willing to try the experiment. His letter is generally commended as manly and able, but somewhat bitter.

LOUISIANA.

The Commission Unable to Effect a Compromise.

Effect of the Commission's Presence.

The Tribune's New Orleans special says: About the only effect of the Commission's presence is to hold the two legislatures together and increase the probabilities of enough Packardites being won over to make Nicholls' legislature legal. The Democratic legislature will adjourn by the end of the week if the commission gets through, and will probably elect a Senator on Thursday.

Compromise Impossible.

The Times' New Orleans special says, it is now generally admitted that a compromise of the Louisiana difficulty will be impossible in spite of the universal feeling to the contrary. However, prominent members of the President's commission express a hope that some kind of adjustment will be made. In conversation with your correspondent to-day, Harlan said, in his opinion the chief if not the only difficulty in the way of a compromise was the opposition to a reorganization of the legislature, which was made by Democratic candidates for the United States Senate. All the commissioners are now said to be united in the demand for the reassembling of the legislature on some basis which will be satisfactory to both parties. Brown is strongly in favor of such a plan and he is accused by ultra Democrats here with having bartered the interests of his party for certain advantages which he hopes to obtain for the Texas Pacific scheme. Both governors continue to demand recognition and support as the first step toward compromise and it is safe to predict that the President will, within the next two weeks be obliged to take upon himself the responsibility of making a settlement.

Packard's Claims Ably Presented.

NEW ORLEANS, April 10.—The commission this morning received a delegation of about thirty colored men, representing all the learned professions, being merchants, brokers and planters. Colonel James Lewis, the commander of a colored regiment during the war, headed the delegation. Addresses were made by Rev. Mr. Bryant, T. Morris Chester, Mr. Astwood and T. D. Tucker. All were very able addresses. In general they portrayed the struggle and hardships of their race, and the necessity of protection. They asked the national government to assist in restoring the title of Governor to Packard to be equal to the title of President Hayes, but they intimated that if Nicholls was ultimately to become Governor they would like to be heard upon the matter, not for the purpose of tracing, but as guarantees of the future of their race. They impressed the commission as able and faithful men. McNeigh, Harlan, Hawley, and Judge Lawrence responded. The interview lasted until one o'clock.

A delegation next appeared, headed by Ex-Gov. Baker, formerly military governor of Louisiana, who, with several others presented a statement and opinions.

A similar volunteer committee followed, composed of old Union men of the State.

Six gentlemen came next, representing judicial districts of the State; amongst them Judges Marks and Pardo, and gave their opinions concerning allegiances in their several districts to the Packard government and the ability of Packard to maintain himself.

New Orleans City Government.

Mayor Pilsbury and five gentlemen of the city council came before the commission, offering the courtesies of the city and presenting many verbal and written statements concerning the condition of the city government. The city debt was, in 1874, twenty-four millions; now twenty-two millions; the rate of taxation in the city was, in 1874, 2½ cents on the dollar, in 1876, 1½ cents on the dollar. State and city taxation are now together 29½ mills on the dollar. The mayor presented many other figures of great interest, showing the burdens and embarrassments of the people, and affirmed that the city would do what it could, and had no disposition to repudiate.

Other Citizens

Called singly and in groups, from different sections of the State, and gave information to the commission respecting the situation in their several localities, urging their opinions on the commission. The commission consented to meet in the morning a small delegation of business men of the city, and also the board of education of the State.

Facts Wanted.

The commission have addressed a communication to a committee of each legislative body asking them to furnish a map of the State showing the various judicial districts, with a compact statement relative to the alleged disturbance of the Kellogg-Packard Supreme Court and the creation of a court in place thereof by Nicholls; also a statement in relation to the district judges; how many Republicans and how many Democrats, which Governor he recognizes, and his acts of recognition; also with regard to police juries corresponding in each parish to selection of county commissioners in Northern States. Similar statements were requested with regard to other officers; also as to the control of the various State institutions; also to the vote of the State, divided according to color and to party; also statements as to the taxes called for by either of the State governments since its organization, and the disbursements that have been made, and any other facts which may tend to show the actual control of State. When the commission is not in session they are individually conferring and advising with citizens of all parts. While they are pursuing an official line of investigation and inquiry and while there are, of course, innumerable communications concerning the future among politicians of all parties, they are liable at any moment to see all their work taken from them by some unexpected combination of affairs. They are careful to disclaim any connection with any compromise or bargains of any sort, and refrain from conversation regarding the Senatorship or federal patronage.

THE TERRITORIES.

Cattle are being driven out of Idaho for the Eastern markets. Chicago buyers are in the field.

The water supply in the Boise county mines will be much less this season than usual. Water is being utilized to the utmost.

The disagreement of stockholders which has prevented the working of the Terrible silver mine at Georgetown, Col., for the past two years, has been adjusted, the English stockholders selling out for an even $1,000,000 in gold. The mine is looked upon as one of the richest in Colorado. Senator Chaffee is the principal owner.

The Boise Statesman learns from Bob Nagent, expressman from Warren's diggings, that Tibbets & Co. have succeeded in reaching the main chimney in the Charity quartz mine, and discovered ore that was so very rich in gold that they pounded out upwards of a thousand dollars with a hand mortar in a very few hours.

The Helena (Montana) Herald says that the Union Pacific company has declined a bonus of $1,700,000 to build a branch road into that Territory. "As for population," says the Herald. "We are likely to have less instead of more. So we may cease to look for immediate relief, and reconcile ourselves to jerkeys, dead-ax wagons and express rates with as much grace as circumstances will admit."

A Silver Lake correspondent of the Ashland Tidings mentions that a brig has been built for navigating the waters of Silver lake and Silver river, and that Geo. Duran intends building another. He only awaits the opportunity to engage ship carpenters.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY.

War Inevitable.

Both Nations Refuse to Make Further Concession.

Neither Power Can Recede.

Russia will Issue a War Manifesto This Week.

War Clouds Gathering.

LONDON, April 9.—The Times' special from Cettinje, reports that the Turkish expedition which is marching against Miridito consists of eight battalions. Commanders of the Montenegrin detachment are ordered to their posts on the frontier. To-day there is no indication of peace.

The Times Belgrade special reports that troops are continually arriving at Jerajvo, and provisions and military stores are being distributed through the insurrectionary districts of Bosnia on the Austrian frontiers. Bosnians believe Montenegro will begin hostilities against the Turks at the expiration of the armistice.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says the news from Pera is bad. The Porte won't absolutely reject the protocol, and will only consent to send an envoy to St. Petersburg if peace with Montenegro is not imposed, and no internal supervision forced on Turkey. The conviction arrived at is that Musselman fanaticism at a pride of race are pushed to the highest pitch. The most reassuring feature is that England employs pressing and energetic language at Constantinople, and at the last moment the Turks may yield. The pacific prospects apparently opened by the protocol have now receded into the distance or rather have vanished.

Attack on Russia's Position.

The Times' leader, after reviewing the unfavorable news from Constantinople, says let us assume the worst, that negotiations now being carried on at Constantinople will have an unfavorable conclusion; let us assume also that the blame may possibly be laid on the Turks, who will have refused once more to acquiesce in the judgment of all Europe, and turn a deaf ear to the pleadings of the Chargé d'Affairs, and by their temerity provoke a great sovereign who was seriously desirous of peace. Is there then no restraining influence in the other powers taken together or singly; no obligation to the community of nations which may outweigh the obstinacy of the Porte? We naturally turn to the latest achievement of diplomacy, the instrument which expresses the convictions of Europe on the Eastern question. Opinions may be divided on the merits of the protocol, and we may be disposed to think its terms too complaisant to Russia while Turkey is treated with too little consideration. The powers have indeed passed condemnation on the Turkish Government and declared that the execution of its promises is doubtful and must be watched over. They imply that the Porte has up to this time disappointed their hopes, and they engage in case of their neglect to consider means by which wrongs to humanity and dangers to Europe may be avoided. The moral effect of this judgment must remain in spite of the declarations of Lord Derby. Proceedings to be taken on the protocol may be made by one Power or another contingent upon something first being done, but to make it really null and void, is beyond the power of man. There is the verdict against Turkey; there is the justification of Russia as the essential merits of the controversy, and these cannot be affected. It stipulates for Turkey one decided advantage. Watchfulness and possible intervention may be the duty of Europe, but if words have meaning the Sultan's government is to be allowed a day of grace. The whole tenor of the protocol is that no one of the Powers shall take any hostile step for the present against the Ottoman State. In the most unmistakable manner it intends to compel abstinence from aggression, and maintain an agreement with the other Powers to watch with them for a reasonable time for the execution of reforms, and finally in case things come to the worse and the hopes of all are deceived, to advise with them on the fittest means to attain the common object. After such engagement with all the great Powers of Europe, the Turkish government being intentionally excepted, can Russia be justified in making a refusal of Turkey to enter into any particular negotiations with herself a reason for war. The principles of the protocol are morally binding on all the powers, and the Russian government cannot get rid of its obligation to France and Germany, to Austria and Italy, to say nothing of England, merely because St. Petersburg and Stamboul cannot agree on a question or point of form which the former has initiated between them.

Turkish and Russian Envoys.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily News says the Turks refuse to send an ambassador to St. Petersburg, unless Russia sends one to Constantinople, and makes Montenegro accede to the Porte's peace proposals.

The Daily Telegraph's Pera correspondent says: I understand the Porte has received a peremptory demand from Russia to know when it intended to dispatch an envoy to St. Petersburg.

The Turkish Question in England.

LONDON, April 10.—In the House of Commons yesterday the Marquis of Hartington gave notice that he will on Friday move for further papers on Turkey, and particularly the draft of the protocol which Count Schouvaloff presented to Lord Derby March 13th, also for any correspondence in reference to the Prussian circular of January 1st and the protocol of March 11th. It is believed this is intended to bring up debate on Eastern affairs without challenging the government, and prevent individual members of the opposition introducing a resolution directed against the ministerial policy. It seems the body of the opposition are unable to agree upon a plan of action satisfactory to the more advanced liberals.

English Interference—Turkey is Insulted.

LONDON, April 9.—The Times' dispatch from Vienna says as is always the case on the eve of great decisions, rumors are circulating in direct opposition to each other. They merely indicate that the decision is still pending. Everything, however, tends to hasten it. There has been no lack of advice from England who now takes the lead in the negotiations with Turkey. Not a day has passed since the protocol was signed that the British representatives had not conferred with the Turkish ministers, nor have they had there conferences without result for the rigid uncumbered attitude which the Porte was inclined to assume at first towards the protocol, regarding it as insulting and unfit for discussion, has, to a certain extent, given way to better counsels. It would not seem that the danger of absolute refusal is more or less obviated, and Turkey is not inclined indeed, to accept but to negotiate about an eventual acceptance as the first preliminary. The withdrawal of the Russian declaration is demanded which is considered an insult by Turkey. The point about peace with Montenegro should, in view of the Porte, also disappear. As for disagreement, Turkey proposes to have regular diplomatic intercourse renewed when direct negotiations might go on through ambassadors by telegraph. As to the Russian declaration, there is not much probability that Russia will withdraw it, for she is bound to it in the face of Europe. Even if Turkey is made to see this, it is almost certain she will not send a special envoy to St. Petersburg, as such a mission is looked upon in Constantinople as a demand by Russia that Turkey should sue for peace at St. Petersburg.

The Times in its leader considers its special announcement from Berlin that Turkey agreed to disarm first, may be premature, the precise character of the decision being yet unknown.

The Vienna correspondent of the Daily News declares that the temper of the Turkish Parliament regarding the protocol will not admit of any attempt at compromise.

Determination of the Porte.

VIENNA, April 10.—Political Correspondence [illegible] has intelligence from St. Petersburg that the Porte has rejected the protocol and Montenegro's demands, but will send the envoy to St. Petersburg.

Turkey Rejects Montenegro's Demands.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 10.—The Turkish Chamber of Deputies rejected the demands of the Montenegrins. Twenty-two members were absent, however, and their views will be ascertained before a final decision is made. Peace or war depends upon Russia's reception of the Turkish circular. There is some question of prolonging the armistice between Turkey and Montenegro after April 13th.

LATER.—The Turkish Chamber of Deputies finally rejected the demands of Montenegro by 65 to 18.

Ultimatum of the Porte.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 10.—The Porte today telegraphed a long circular to all Ottoman representatives abroad. The circular lays stress on the Porte's desire for peace and determination to execute the reforms. It does not reject the protocol absolutely, but only those points which admit of foreign interference in Turkey's internal affairs. It repels the declaration appended to the protocol by Count Schouvaloff, and says the Porte will only consent to send a delegate to St. Petersburg and disarm if Russia is disposed to disarm simultaneously. It asks the powers to induce Montenegro to show a more conciliatory attitude.

Russia's Final Conclusion.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 10.—The report that Russia has fixed the 13th instant for the date before which the Porte must give its decision in regard to sending an extraordinary ambassador to St. Petersburg is confirmed. The Agence Russe says everything depends upon the decisions which the ambassador would bring, but in any case Russia, having gone to the utmost limit in the path of concession will not go a single step further.

The Bourse Gazette declares war inevitable, and retreat impossible for either party.

War to be Proclaimed.

LONDON, April 11.—A special to the Times from St. Petersburg says bad news has been received from Turkey. A war manifesto is expected on Friday.

Weather Phenomenon.

SAN DIEGO April 10.—An extraordinary wind storm to-day, was the most singular weather phenomenon in the knowledge of the oldest inhabitant. The storm began [illegible] on Saturday sweeping in a circle across the desert, around through Los Angeles and down the coast. At 2 o'clock, [illegible] the force of the wind reached its maximum velocity, being 70 miles per hour. The highest velocity ever before recorded here was 30 miles per hour. It is now calm, and the barometer has been falling all afternoon.

Bad Time for Fun.

CHICO, April 10.—The rumor that the Labor Union had reorganized, or that the Council of Nine had been meeting, is entirely without foundation. The fact that a threatening notice was posted in front of a cigar stand in this city is correct, but it is looked upon as an attempt at fun to create a scare, but it is a bad time to fun in such manner.

Hall, a San Francisco detective, was here yesterday, and he informed your reporter that there is every probability of some of those persons discharged last week in Oroville being again arrested for conspiracy or arson. Ames has fled and Hall is after him.

China Grain Fields.

Some of the grain fields in this section are showing mildew, but a drying north wind which has prevailed to-day will, it is thought, counteract its effect upon grain.

Notorious Burglar Convicted.

VALLEJO, April 10.—Black Jack, who enjoys a State reputation as a burglar, was convicted in the county court yesterday on a charge of burglary in Wells, Fargo & Co.'s safe, at Suisun, last year.

Port Commodore.

The special duty at San Francisco to which Commodore Spotts has been ordered is that of port commodore.

A Cold Snow.

A cold and furious north wind has blown to-day. The crop prospect throughout Southern Solano is very discouraging. A general failure in grain is feared.

Holiday Celebration.

The people of the Russian fleet are celebrating their Easter holidays, the Greek Catholic, which began on Sunday and expires on Wednesday.

A Dividend.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—A dividend of $1 per share has been declared by the Northern Belle mining company, payable on the 16th.

Bullion Thief Arrested.

John Paul, charged with the grand larceny of thirteen bars of bullion, was to-day arrested by Capt. Lees, on a requisition from Nevada, and started for Virginia City this afternoon.

OREGON'S "CONTESTANT."

SALEM, April 9, 1877.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I see in your paper of the 2d inst. a reference to a contest for a seat in the House of Representatives from Mississippi; a colored Republican gave notice to a white Democrat (supposed to be white) of intention to contest. We have a similar case in some particulars in Oregon. A Republican Democrat gave notice to a Breckinridge Republican by mail within four days after the Governor's proclamation was issued declaring Richard Williams elected, that the seat would be contested. In other words notice was served on Richard Williams, Dec. 22, 1876, by Dr. S. W. McDowell, of Salem, by delivery of said notice, with statement of grounds of contest, in Salem post-office, sealed, weighed and stamped for transmission to Portland; the postmaster saying it was all right and would go that day. Said sealed envelope was addressed "Hon. Richard Williams, Portland, Oregon."

Now there is a screw loose and the machinery needs readjusting between Richard and the postmasters at Salem and Portland. The law requires the contestant to give notice and grounds of contest within 30 days from Governor's proclamation; and also that the other party shall answer the notice and complaint, admitting or denying the allegations, and setting up his own defense by answer within 30 days from service of notice, which McDowell has failed to receive from him, and he (McD.) has notified the clerk of 44th Congress that he gave such notice and grounds to said Williams, and that he intends to contest the seat in the House of Representatives in the 45th Congress, from Oregon, with Richard Williams.

Perhaps a special postal agent can tell where the trouble is. S. W. McDOWELL.

The estate of R. R. Hargadine, deceased, of Jackson county, has been appraised at $47,785 21.

A few days ago a man named Doc. Coolan was shot in Lake county by John Graham. Graham is a county commissioner, and has been for nearly a year, having been disabled by being shot in the leg. Coolan was dressing his leg in the hospital, and while thus engaged Graham shot him in the back with a pistol he had concealed under his pillow. Coolan's wound is considered mortal.

The report that Thomas Charlier was drowned recently in Rogue river is a mistake. At least Thomas contradicts it.

The Daily Oregonian.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 11, 1877.

AN ASTONISHING COMPARISON.

The fall of gold, which has continued at a steady rate until paper currency is now nearly at par value with gold coin, is not an inexplicable phenomenon; it is simply an incident of a more healthy system of industry and general business, a result of a vast improvement which has taken place in the commercial and industrial affairs of the United States. This improvement has not been a sudden result, nor is it a spasmodic symptom [illegible] no permanent advantages. It is a natural outgrowth of the laws of trade. In this long-continued depression of all business [illegible] the means of revival and recovery [illegible]. In the times of [illegible] and speculation that prevailed ten years ago production in all branches of industry was abnormally developed. After a while markets became plethoric with goods. Prices declined. The home demand was not equal to the wants of a market, and inquiry, [illegible], was made for markets elsewhere. In this way American goods were pushed into many parts of the world where they had hitherto been unknown. After a while, through the operation of these agencies, the balance of trade began to grow [illegible]. It was a long and tedious process, but it came about in the natural course of the laws of production and trade, and there was no other way. At the same time the general depression at home caused a shrinkage in the amount of imports, and this also was a great factor in bringing about the change.

A single statement, showing the extraordinary revolution in the trade movement will [illegible] explanation of the fall of gold, and will also furnish the reason for confidence that general improvement in the [illegible] condition of the United States has begun. A review of the foreign trade of the country for the year 1876, shows a decrease of $[illegible],027 in total imports, and an increase of $[illegible],812 in exports, as compared with the year 1875. This [illegible] of trade prodigious and unprecedented. Thus far in the present year it continues without abatement. The balance [illegible] for the year 1875, specie excluded, [illegible] two million dollars. For 1876 the balance of exports, specie not included, [illegible], while the excess of total exports for 1876, specie added, was more than $150,000,000. Up to 1874 the balance of [illegible] against the United States [illegible] $120,-[illegible].

[illegible] of facts like these leaves no [illegible] in the fall of gold, and no doubt that [illegible] for business [illegible] throughout the United States.

PROPAGATION OF SALMON.

WILLAMETTE BRIDGE.

[illegible] the Willamette [illegible] a bridge [illegible] always been a failure. It is now proposed that the county shall [illegible] the work. Many citizens are joining in a petition to the commissioners, urging [illegible] the construction of a bridge and pay for it by a tax levied on the property of the county. It will be admitted that the county is rich enough to build it, and that the benefits would be great. The tax required would hardly be an excessive burden, and perhaps a majority of the taxpayers, being the middle class, by whom a large part of aggregate taxes is paid, may readily desire to see it undertaken. Examination of the petition will convince any one that much of the property of the county is represented upon it; yet it would evince a want of candor not to admit that the objections are numerous, and that the difficulties in the way, aside from mere objections as to the expediency of such an undertaking by the county, are great and perhaps insuperable. The opponents of the scheme would do all in their power to defeat it, and would be very likely to find means to do it. In the first place the river cannot be bridged without consent of the government, first obtained, and the work could probably be stopped by an appeal to the courts of the United States. And secondly, the limitations in our State constitution are such as to make it extremely doubtful whether any way could be found to authorize the county to take the action proposed. The bridge could scarcely be built without placing the county under liabilities exceeding the constitutional limit, nor could [illegible] toll, at [illegible] act of the legislature. These are obstacles which meet the proposition at the threshold; and though in common with others we should be willing to pay the tax for such an improvement, we are unable to see, upon reflection, how the project can be carried out on the plan proposed.

[illegible] throw more light on what is known of the Matthews-Foster agreement. [illegible] pledge or statement made on the 27th of February that President Hayes would not uphold State governments by the use of United States troops. Hayes was not at all a party to it, but his policy is in full accord with it. In his inaugural address he committed himself in a positive way to the same policy. He says that public opinion in the North has pronounced against military interference; that Congress has declined to vote supplies for an army which could be used for such purpose, and no doubt would continue to do so. Matthews and Foster gave assurances also that Grant, during the remaining days of his term, would make no further use of the troops in such behalf, and this engagement was strictly kept. There is no doubt but the administration is fully resolved to withdraw the troops. The only reason for delay is to take precautions against hurtful consequences.

From a letter we publish this morning it appears that Hon. Richard Williams, who holds the certificate for Oregon's seat in the 45th Congress, has failed to respond to S. W. McDowell, contestant, and the latter has in consequence taken judgment in his own behalf by default of Mr. Williams, who therefore need not continue his preparations for departure to Washington.

Chamberlain repeats Packard's taunt that Hayes is discrediting the methods of his own election. But this doesn't move Rutherford B., who goes straight ahead with the business he has in hand.

Business is "picking up."

Memorial Day next.

Another big Eastern mail will ar.ive on the steamer.

Special meeting of Common Council this evening.

His Excellency, Acting Governor Chadwick, is in the city.

The overcrowded state of our columns compels the condensation of local news.

Asahel Bush, Esq., who went East in the electoral squabble, has not yet returned.

One more unfortunate patient was committed to the asylum Monday, from Linn county.

The spring-like air and genial sunshine brought the gardeners out in ful. force yesterday.

Candidates for city offices are beginning to come to the surface. The crop will be large as usual.

Our old friend, Frank E. Hodgkin, gave us a pleasant call last evening. Frank is "one of our boys, he is."

About the first of next month the W. R. T. Co.'s offices will be moved down to the O. S. N. Co.'s building.

Preliminary trial of W. C. Morand will commence before Judge Woodward to-morrow afternoon.

Doctors report the general health of the people of Portland as much better than it was during the winter months.

Col. A. R. Eddy, we understand, is soon to relieve Col. Batchelder as Chief Quartermaster of the Department of the Columbia.

The orchards and fruit trees in this city and vicinity give promise of a more abundant crop than has been gathered for seve al years.

Isaac Cohagan, who was committed to the county jail for a murderous assault on Dan Owens, will not be liberated until about the 1st of June.

It is stated on good authority that Hon. O. N. Denny, Collector of Internal Revenue, has tendered his resignation, and that the same is now on its way to Washington.

Some idea of the vast amount of tonnage which has arrived here in ballast within the past few years, may be formed by a consideration of the fact that several of the main streets of the city has been macadamized with this ballast.

AMUSEMENTS.

New Market Theater.—Las evening "Aurora Floyd" was rendered at New Market Theater to a large and well pleased audience. This beautiful emotional play was well mounted and rendered in excellent style, and afforded entire satisfaction. Mr. Jack personated the character of "John Mellish" in his usual cor ect and artistic manner. Miss Annie Firmin assumed the title role in a very superior style. The support was prompt and

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH,

Is Universally Recommended.

We have just received a communication from nearly every druggist in New England and the West, and the testimony is universally in favor of Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh. We believe there never was a remedy so popular wherever known, and certainly we feel that never was one more deserving of praise. Founded upon correct scientific principles, and calculated by the most accomplished physicians to meet the severest forms of Catarrh, the cures made by it have not only been numerous, but so remarkable as to excite public attention and cause the sale to exceed tenfold that of any similar remedy ever before compounded.

While many are anxious to make public their testimony in favor of the Radical Cure, others—and among this number may be found many of our most respected citizens—dislike to become publicly identified with so loathsome a disease. Hence in the following case we are unable to give the name, but are permitted to refer those who may call upon us personally to him, and to state the severity and condition of the case before and after using the Radical Cure, and also that the gentleman occupies a responsible office in one of our State institutions. We quote:

"I would not for the world permit my name to be used, although I have no doubt it would be of benefit to many now suffering as I have suffered; but I give you a brief statement of my case:

"For two years I have taken bromide of potassa and bromide of ammonia every day. I never passed a single night without getting up once or twice to free my throat from the matter that had dropped into it during sleep, and finally I coughed during all this time. Since taking the RADICAL CURE I have taken no potassa or ammonia, have slept soundly every night without uneasiness or distress; not a particle of matter has dropped into my throat during sleep, and every symptom of cough has left me."

A wonderful result truly, all will say who know or can realize the extent and severity of this case. The gentleman has had eighteen bottles. This must satisfy the most sceptical that there is great merit in the Radical Cure. Its mode of preparation is new and original. Ignoring the old practices and remedies, Dr. Sanford selected a new field, and has demonstrated his method to be the only proper and never failing treatment.

The following recommendations are from

DRUGGISTS,

Who are competent witnesses to the work it is daily doing.

Sanford's Radical Cure has proved the best remedy for relieving Catarrh. W. M. FELLOWS, Haverhill, Mass.

I am selling large quantities of your Sanford's Radical Cure. DR. WENTWORTH, Biddeford, Me.

Sanford's Radical Cure is having a good sale. It is just what the people have been wanting. A. M. GERRY, So. Paris, Me.

I have kept Sanford's Radical Cure on hand since its first introduction, and the sale and satisfaction in its use have been unequalled by any other similar preparation within my knowledge. W. H. WILLIS, M. D., Reading, Mass.

I have sold Sanford's Radical Cure for a year or more, and it stands the test the best of any similar remedy I have ever sold. WILL H. OWEN, MILO, Me.

We recommend no other cure, and have no trouble in selling it. L. F. EVANS & CO.,

The week so far has [illegible] in the volume of transactions [illegible], but no special change in rates or the relative condition as [illegible]. The requirements for ordinary business purposes are about of the usual proportions, and the extra demand coming from the fishing interests and those intending to engage in the export of domestic products, more especially wool, added to the call for capital to inaugurate [illegible] and make contemplated improvements, [illegible] up a very considerable aggregate of [illegible] the banks and other lending institutions. The surplus capital of the market has been remarked for several months past, but the present condition of business points to its more general and active employment, and, consequently [illegible] the various branches of trade and commerce.

The Wool Market.

[illegible] paragraph has kept our readers well advised [illegible] of the Eastern market in this commodity. Latest reports, from the manufacturing [illegible] of New England as well as from San Francisco, indicate rather a better outlook for the best [illegible], while the prospect for inferior grades is [illegible]. On the 1st of this month the rates of [illegible] were advanced ½ cent [illegible], renders it probable that low [illegible] themselves, but choice [illegible] are reported to have been bought [illegible] but little affected by it. SHERIFF'S NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT by virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the [illegible] Clerk [illegible] of the [illegible] to me directed and delivered, commanding me to sell the following described mortgaged property, situated in Yamhill county, State of Oregon, to wit: Beginning [illegible] north eighty three degrees, east thirteen chains and eighty links, south of the northeast corner of the southeast quarter of section thirty-four, in township four south, range four west of the Willamette meridian; running thence south eighty-three degrees west, one hundred and three chains and fifty links, thence south eighteen degrees and thirty minutes east twenty-nine chains and twenty links, thence east twenty three chains and thirty links, thence south twenty-five degrees, east forty chains, thence south seventy-two degrees, east, twelve chains and fifty links, thence north seventy-three degrees, east seventy-one chains, thence north twenty-three degrees and thirty minutes, west sixty four chains and ninety links to the place of beginning, containing 640 91-100 acres.

Also the following described premises, to wit: Lots three, four, five and six, and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter and the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section three and lot number one of section four, all in township five south, range four west of the Willamette meridian, containing 154 31-100 acres.

Also the following described premises to wit: The fractional south half of the northeast quarter, the fractional south half of the northwest quarter, the fractional north half of the southeast quarter, and the fractional southwest quarter, all of section thirty four, and the fractional northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section thirty-five, and the fractional southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section thirty-three, and the fractional northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section thirty-three, all in township four south, range four west of the Willamette meridian, containing 150 53 100 acres.

Also the following described premises, to wit: Beginning at the southeast corner of that certain donation and claim known and designated on the maps and plats of the United States government surveys as the donation land claim of Richard Booth and his wife Margaret, and running thence west twenty four chains and eighty links to the west boundary line of said Booth's claim, and the boundary line between said Booth's claim and the claim of C. B. Hawley, thence south on said line two chains, thence west to the center of the Yamhill river, thence down the center of said river to a point where the east boundary line of said Booth's claim crosses said river, thence south on said east boundary line to the place of beginning, containing 42 50 100 acres.

Also the following described premises, to wit: Beginning at the southeast corner of that certain land claim situate in township five south, range four west of the Willamette meridian, known and designated in the government surveys as claim number seventy-two, and running thence north twenty-three degrees and thirty minutes west, nineteen chains and fifty links, thence south seventy-five degrees and thirty minutes, east seven chains and forty links, thence south four degrees and thirty minutes west, twenty-nine chains, thence north eighty-five degrees and thirty minutes west, twenty-seven chains and sixty links, thence south four degrees and thirty minutes west five chains, thence west seventy-nine chains and eight links, thence north twelve chains, thence east twenty-seven chains and fifty links, thence south seventy degrees and thirty minutes east twelve chains, thence north seventy-three degrees east, seventy-one chains to the place of beginning, containing 153 acres.

Also the following described premises, to wit: Beginning at a point north fourteen degrees, east forty-five chains from the southeast corner of that certain land claim situate in township five south, range four west of the Willamette meridian, and known and designated upon the maps and plats of the government surveys as the land claim of Charles M. Johnson, and running thence north fourteen degrees east thirty five chains and thirteen links, thence north four degrees west, thirteen chains and fifty four links, thence west fifty-one chains and twenty links, thence south nine degrees west, seventeen chains and seventy links, thence south fifty-six degrees and thirty minutes east [illegible] chains and fifty one links to the place of beginning, containing 175 40 100 acres.

Or so much thereof as may be sufficient to raise the amount due to the plaintiffs from the defendant Jane Armstrong, and interest thereon, and for special attorney's fee, and for costs and disbursements herein and the expenses of sale, in accordance with a judgment and decree entered on the [illegible] day of April, A. D. 1876, in said court, in favor of the Oregon and Washington Trust Investment Company, limited, and against Jane Armstrong, in a case wherein the Oregon and Washington Trust Investment Company, limited, were plaintiffs and Jane Armstrong et al were defendants.

[illegible], on the [illegible] of April, A. D. 1877, at the hour of [illegible] o'clock P. M. of said day, in front of the court house door in the town of Lafayette, county of Yamhill, District of Oregon, proceed to sell the above described property, for cash in hand, in U. S. gold coin, excepting one hundred and fourteen [illegible] by Jane Armstrong to [illegible] and conveyed by deed dated the 27th day of [illegible], A. D. 1876, and which has been released from the effect of said decree.

Ordinance No. 1948.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE time and manner of improving Columbia street from the center of Eighth street to the center of Twelfth street.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of Columbia street lying between the center line of Eighth street and the center line of Twelfth street shall be completed as hereinafter provided on or before the 1st day of July, 1877.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all timber, plank or other obstructions. If the obstructions are not removed within three days after notice from the Superintendent of Streets they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of grading the street to the established grade.

Section 4. The contractor shall take entire charge of the work during its progress, and shall be responsible for any loss or accident resulting from carelessness or neglect.

Section 5. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property and the Superintendent of Streets.

Section 6. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for, receive proposals and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the improvement specified in this Ordinance.

Passed the Common Council April 4, 1877.

Tweed Still in Jail, and Why.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Tweed still lies in jail because he has failed to make the promised unconditional surrender of his property and papers, some of which have already been [illegible], which confirm his confession of improper dealings with legislators, judges, and others. His friends say he is [illegible] possession of many of these vouchers, but fails to produce them he is likely to remain a perpetual prisoner, as placing them beyond his control was a violation of the agreement agreed upon when they were admitted into his hands.

The Black Hills Mines.

CHICAGO, April 11.—Col. A. L. King, a gentleman of considerable mining experience, has returned from the Black Hills and reports there are large quantities of quartz in the Deadwood region, and the ore generally easily worked. The stamp mill process is all that is needed, and the cost of working per ton [illegible] mining, does not exceed [illegible] dollars. King is of the opinion that there are [illegible] ores in the Big Horn and Yellowstone country of greater wealth than are found [illegible] as yet developed on the Black Hills, and that they are an extension of the [illegible] belt and placers [illegible] last year [illegible]. A Strong Imagination.

IOWA CITY, Iowa, April 11.—The story of the attempted abduction of Miss Watson from a Rock Island railroad car by six roughs, proves, on close examination, to be unfounded. She had the hysterics and imagined her woes.

The Alleged Benders.

FORT SMITH, Ark., April 11.—The Keefer's arrested as the Bender family have been released. Kansas parties fail to identify them.

Commotion in Wall Street.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Wall street is again greatly excited to-day. Northwest and Rock Island weakened early; both stocks flooding the market in a mysterious manner, which caused numerous rumors. Northwest struck 18⅛, commencing at 27; preferred also went to 44 from 47. Rock Island was sympathetic, and went from 95 to 92⅛, the lowest point. Everybody was eager for the denouement of Kennedy's failure. This respectable house will doubtless soon pay in full and resume. After this failure there was a reaction of Northwest to 21⅛ and Rock Island to 93⅛, but lower prices quickly prevailed again. There was also a general depression in coal stocks, but less marked. Pacific Mail went from 17½ to 15⅛, and Panama to 89. Coal stocks took a sudden decline late in the day; Delaware and Hudson Canal sold to 36, Lackawanna and Western from 56⅛ to 50, but though the excitement was tremendous prices rallied when it was authoritatively denied that Delaware and Hudson had been put in the hands of a receiver.

The Times on the Wall Street Turmoil.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The Times says of the two panics in Wall street to-day, one of them was entirely causeless and the other almost so. Early in the morning one of the banks, which held a large amount of stock as collateral, became alarmed at the decrease in extent of [illegible] represented, owing to second depreciation in the speculative values of the [illegible] called in its loans.
